

---

IN THE NEWS

---

Thursday 24th, November - Riots in Dublin

- ❖ Three children and a school care assistant were stabbed outside a primary school on Thur
- ❖ Taoiseach (pronounced) Teeshock (=Irish Prime Minister) Leo Varadkar said about 500 people were involved in the disorder.
- ❖ After the stabbings, rumours spread on messaging apps and far-right agitators decided they would protest at the crime scene.
- ❖ This ended with the worst unrest to hit Ireland in decades, as rioters clashed with the police, set vehicles alight and looted stores.

Garda vans outside the General Post Office on O'Connell Street in Dublin. Photograph: David Young/PA Wire