

UNIT 2 - The British Monarchy

RECAP : write the Monarch's powers under each picture.

The monarch signs bills into laws

The monarch can veto bills but rarely does it.

The monarch appoints lords.

The monarch appoints the PM

The monarch can dismiss the PM

The monarch can approve marriages in the family.

The monarch can take custody of the grandchildren. (=obtenir la garde de)

The monarch is allowed to drive without a licence.

The monarch is allowed to travel without a passport.

King Charles pays taxes voluntarily, even though it's not mandatory.

The monarch claims all the swans on the River Thames.

The monarch can also claim all the whales and dolphins in British waters but does not actually do it.

The monarch can declare war.

The monarch can get away with murder (= do something illegal and not be punished = s'en tirer en toute impunité)